Tonight marked the final event of the 2018 Grand Prix series. It was a bit cold and damp and the light was noticeably dwindling by the end. A tough finale was fought out between front contenders for the series, Erik and Richard, with Erik getting the only sub-two of the evening. We were grateful to adjourn to the warmth of Kirklands for a post series social and meal. Altogether a lovely way to end a most excellent series.

Well done to everyone who has participated and helped to make this series a great tribute to our club. And particular thanks to Paul Maddocks for organising the series for the past few years. He has given up hours of time to make these events work. We look forward to a new team taking over next year.
