With the weather forecast over the past few days predicting near apocalyptic conditions it was a pleasant surprise to run this event in the dry. In general conditions were very good for this evenings hill climb. As has become tradition for our "hilly" events we had almost as many helpers as riders.

Well done to Richard on winning the event but leaving his previous course record unscathed. A very big well done to Struan Bennet (a junior) in third place followed closely by another junior Rory Maddocks in fourth.

Also a very big thankyou to all the volunteers who selflessly gave up the chance to ride the fearsome Cleish hill and without them we would be unable to hold these events.

David Haining – organiser
Trevor Keer – timekeeper
Erik Lornie – timekeeper / spotter
Kirsty Ellis – Starter
Craig Johnston – pusher
Mark Cheyne
Malcolm Adams
Craig MacGregor – marshals

Next event is in 2 weeks and is the Hilly TT. Lots of hills so why not give it a go.
