16 riders competed (a good turnout for an event with hilly in its name!) in the Hilly time trial taking in the fearsome descent and then the climb out of the Path of Condie.

While the weather was ideal, a warm summers evening for a change, the conditions for competition were far from ideal. We were competing for road space with runners at the annual Milnathort Dash. Confusing at times and a bit congested at various points along the route. But everyone made it to the finish safely without any serious incident.

Thanks to the volunteers who made this event possible with a couple of us multitasking on the evening!
